NOTES FROM THE PREZ:

Well I hope all had a good summer. The clambake was great. The social ladies did a great job even getting a perfect weather day. Verna did her chef thing and cooked some great food, the dishes that were brought to pass were awesome, and Don's "moose" went fast as usual.

I know summer is drawing to a close because the Skiing magazine new ski gear test issue just arrived. Even though summer is great, it gets the mouth watering for the white stuff. If you're in need of some new gear or looking for a second set of boards, check out skiing mag and then remember, the Ski Company pre season sale is usually the second or third weekend in Sept.

I also just discovered that we will have an extra day of skiing this winter.

General membership meeting

Clambake Recap

Our Club "CLAMBAKE" which was held on August 5th at Hinckley State Park was a great time!! We couldn't have had better weather. Many kayaked even though the lake was unusually low. The grilled food was delicious thanks to Virna who helped us out by being the "GrillChef". It was a toss-up as to who was "dubbed" the "CLAM NAZI" Virna or Linda A. Our thanks to those that helped us out with bringing a covered dish to complete the cookout! We also want to thank Mike Agen & Ron Squires for their assistance on that day!

Boating and Picnic at Katie Smith s Review

It was a gorgeous July day on 1st. Lake. Katie Smith hosted a day of fun and relaxation at her cottage, which was enjoyed by a small but enthusiastic group. The hi-light was a boat ride in Katie's motorboat. She gave a guided tour of the lower end of the beautiful Fulton Chain of Lakes. There was no place I would rather been.

Thank you again Katie for your hospitality.
